

Triumphant,
in King JAMES his
'happy
coming to the Crown of England^ &c.

HAT time it pleased GOD omnipotent* to seize upon the soul of our late Sovereign Queen of famous memory, that worthy gentleman, Sir ROBERT GARY, night and day omitting no industry, brought, as I have heard it credibly reported, the first fame of the happened honour to our thrice famous and heroic King JAMES : whose haste though it unhappily threw him from his horse near his journey's end, yet it foretold the ensuing Majesty to come, and worthily entertained of one so gracious as our blessed and dread Sovereign, gave him to understand, the power of the Almighty in his behalf; seating him as lawful and immediate in the English Throne, to rule Israel with a happy hand,

I shall not need to relate the good orders of the Most Honourable, grave, and wise Council of this, land; the great love of the whole nobility; the affective humours of all the Court to shew their duties in that behalf; the worthy usage of the citizens of London in general, and in what excellent manner he was proclaimed, with what quiet love and government. For mine own part, I have known the city of London
